10 OCTOBER 2022 (ACCRA, GHANA) - Reggae Master Roots Ambassador, Kwame Bediako, releases his latest single entitled "Walk & Roll" via Wan Afrika Productions/BSM Publishing.

"Walk & Roll" on the one hand, is a fun flirt about the attraction of a love interest. Kwame commented, "I wrote "Walk & Roll" to give respect and pay homage to the women in our lives. How bland life would be indeed without their body language." On the other hand, when Kwame sings, "Red. Gold and Green. I'm in love." he metaphorically is stating his love for Rasta as not unlike the love for a woman. "She walk and roll me" ... a personification of his faith in spiritual oneness and how this makes him feel.

Produced with participation from Sidney Mills - Steel Pulse/SPI Music, Aston Barrett Jr. - The Wailers, Georges Kouakou - Alpha Blondy, the song is a top-notch roots reggae romp with an infectious sing along chorus.

Kwame Bediako is best known for the classic song 'One Man No Dub' from his "Forward Ever" album which is still garnering airplay 20 years after its release. His pioneering masterpiece, "How Sweet It Is" re-released as a 25th Anniversary Special Edition, is culturally focused on themes of pan-africanism and colonial context.

His recently released fourth studio album "World Disorder" is yet another hard hitting collection of conscious roots reggae.

Kwame Bediako's entire catalogue is now available for streaming on all major platforms including Spotify, Apple Music, and Youtube Music.

"Kwame's high energy, nonstop performance is truly spellbinding." - Indianapolis Museum of Art
"The band's experience and inventiveness permeate their performance." - African Spectrum
"How Sweet It Is for the reconnection of all peoples to take root." - Afrique News Magazine
